

Visions & Dreams of Building Peace

*"Your young people will see visions, and your elders will dream dreams."
-- Joel 2:28 | Acts 2:17*

The message of Pentecost is that the gospel of peace is for everyone. Peter quoted Joel's vision of a time when all people—young and old, rich and poor—would be full of the Spirit of the Lord. The Holy Spirit taught Peter and the other disciples that God's love was to all people, not just to their nation.

2014 is the 40th anniversary of On Earth Peace, and we invite you to find someone who seems different from you in some important way—age, gender, race, religion, philosophy, culture, class, etc.—and talk with each other to share your respective "Visions & Dreams of Building Peace" for the next 40 years.

Capture your interview in a video, or in an audio podcast or text transcript with an interesting photo, and share it on the Visions and Dreams Blog (www.VisionsAndDreams.us) we created specifically for this purpose. Feel free to also share it on your Facebook, Twitter, and other feeds. Use the #VisionsAndDreams hashtag to spread the word, and to celebrate our 40th Anniversary. Add #BuildPeace too, if you like.

To Share Together:

- What does building peace mean or look like to you?
- Tell me about someone who inspires you to build peace.
- Tell me about one of your most positive experiences with building peace.

Thousands of churches and community groups will pray and act for peace as part of Peace Day 2014. Thank you for building peace and reducing violence on September 21, 2014.
